Project Management

COURSE OUTCOMES:

- Companies regularly use project management to achieve optimum results through the use of limited resources and under critical time constraints. In the services sector, the use of project management to achieve the objectives of an organization is quite common. Advertising campaigns, political campaigns, family vacations planning or even a project management course, like this one, are organized as projects.
- In recent years a relatively new growth area in the use of project management is the use of projects as a way of accomplishing organizational change. Indeed, there is a rapid increase in the number of firms that use projects as the preferred way of accomplishing almost everything they undertake.

The main objective of this course is to introduce the student to the rich world of Project Management methodologies and its application at a global scale. In a world that has become globalized, the need for leaders capable of facing challenges is growing every day. We need leaders and project managers who are capable of understanding cultural and ideological differences, are respectful of different habits than their original environments, and are able to succeed in project goals.
