Event Summary	The COVID-19 pandemic brought unprecedented challenges to societies worldwide, leading to strict lockdown measures to curb the spread of the virus. As countries gradually emerge from the lockdown phase, a "new normal" has emerged, signifying a shift in various aspects of everyday life. The "new normal" following the lockdown has brought about significant changes in various aspects of daily life. Health and safety measures, remote work, digital transformation, and changes in travel and tourism have become integral parts of society. Education, healthcare, and mental well-being have undergone transformations to adapt to the changing circumstances. While these changes have brought challenges, they have also provided opportunities for innovation and resilience as societies move forward in this new era.

Event Summary	Civil services exams are often perceived as being more suited for students with backgrounds in subjects like science or commerce. However, this couldn't be further from the truth. The world of civil services requires a diverse set of skills, including critical thinking, analytical abilities, effective communication, and a nuanced understanding of society, culture, and governance – precisely what humanities students excel at.
